SELLER'S PROPERTY DISCLOSURE STATEMENT
EXHIBIT "_____"

2026 Printing

This Seller's Property Disclosure Statement ("Statement") is an exhibit to the Purchase and Sale Agreement with an Offer Date of _____ for the Property (known as or located at: _____2242 Crawfordville Road,_____ _____Rayle_____, Georgia, _____30660_____. This Statement is intended to make it easier for Seller to fulfill Seller's legal duty to disclose hidden defects in the Property of which Seller is aware. Seller is obligated to disclose such defects even when the Property is being sold "as-is."

A. INSTRUCTIONS TO SELLER IN COMPLETING THIS STATEMENT.

In completing this Statement, Seller agrees to:

(1) answer all questions in reference to the Property and the improvements on the Property;

(2) answer all questions fully, accurately and to the actual knowledge and belief of all Sellers (hereinafter, collectively "Knowledge");

(3) provide additional explanations to all "yes" answers in the corresponding Explanation section below each group of questions (including providing to Buyer any additional documentation in Seller's possession), unless the "yes" answer is self-evident;

(4) if prior to Closing there are any material changes in the answers to any of the questions, Seller shall promptly revise the Statement and provide it to the Buyer and any Broker involved in the transaction.

B. HOW THIS STATEMENT SHOULD BE USED BY BUYER. Caveat emptor or "buyer beware" is the law in Georgia. Buyer should conduct a thorough inspection of the Property. If Seller has not occupied or recently occupied the Property, Seller's Knowledge of the Property's condition may be limited. Buyer is expected to use reasonable care to inspect the Property and confirm that it is suitable for Buyer's purposes. If an inspection of the Property reveals problems or areas of concern that would cause a reasonable Buyer to investigate further, Buyer should investigate further. A "yes" or "no" answer to a question means "yes" or "no" to the actual Knowledge and belief of all Sellers of the Property. In other words, if a Seller answers "no" to a question, it means Seller either affirmatively knows that the answer to the question is "no" or has no Knowledge whether such condition exists on the Property. As such, Seller's answers should not be taken as a warranty or guaranty of the actual condition of the Property, nor a substitute for Buyer doing its own due diligence.

ADDITIONAL EXPLANATIONS (If needed):

We bought this house in the summer of 2024. We bought it from an older couple that I believe only owned it for 7-9 years. The previous owners told me about, replacing the water heater, the HVAC, and having the septic serviced. The HVAC unit I was told was put in the year before i bought the house which would be in 2022ish. There is a garden that used to be soil treated and fertilized. There is a chicken coup with three connecting runs a house and one of the runs is covered. The garden shed has lights and power, this is where I run the heat to the well house during the winter. There is a homemade lawnmower shed that is connected to a manufactured 30x12 dual lofted wooden building. The building is run with power on the inside to run a shop but it is setup to be run by a generator in the connected lawnmower building. The well house is covered by a tarp from the previous owner, I have never had or noticed any problems with it. The well is filtered water with plenty of new filters. The screened in back porch has the bottom of it screened in as well with a small door for storage underneath. The crawlspace is well insulated and lined with plastic on the bottom. There is almost enough room to stand on one side of the house. There is an abandoned water spicket that used to have hot water on the outside of the house that was disconnected by the previous owner. There is still cold water spickets in two locations on the outside of the house. The attic has a floor designed for storage on one end of the house. The rest of the attic has a walkway to get to the other end of the house. There is a fan in the attic hooked to a thermostat to help the attic in the summer. There are multiple light switches in the house that control outlets as well as fixtures, and one of these turns the power on to the dishwasher. A lot of the lightbulbs in the can lights have been replaced with 10 year led bulbs that you can change the done and brightness. I have taken apart the sink traps and cleaned them with in the last year and reinstalled them. The water heater is very large and very hot, great for doing dishes. The propane tank outside is rented from Wilhoit gas and is only used for the fireplace, but I believe the log insert can be removed and used with real firewood. The light outside the house in the front yard on a pole is the power companies and we pay 15 dollars a month for it. The light on a pole in the back yard comes with the house and is wired to the house. The screened in porch on the back has custom window inserts that are removable that help it stay warm and be used as a sunroom in the winter.
